Reunion Edition

SIGN UP NOW!

Our Sept. 29, 2018 Retiree reunion is ready for you to get onboard and send in your reservation. In this newsletter you can see our agenda for both the traditional gathering at JCI Corporate headquarters, and the afternoon matinee “Songs for Nobodies” show in downtown Milwaukee. We heard from some members that they were hesitant to stay out too late in the downtown area, so an afternoon matinee is our approach to have an earlier event. If the dinner is too late for some, just come for the show. Or stay for the night at the attached Intercontinental Hotel.

At the Corporate gathering we will be hearing about some of the latest offerings from Johnson Controls and how they are changing the controls business. There is no doubt that things are always changing and this is will give us some insight into how Johnson Controls is growing and changing from what we used to know. We would like to thank Don Albinger for being both our sponsor for this gathering, as well as providing an update on some of the new JCI dimensions. We will also give a brief update on our WSJ Society and our communication channels available to keep you informed.

For our afternoon/evening event we will be gathering at the newly renovated ($1.75 million worth) Stackner Cabaret. This is part of Milwaukee Repertory Theater located at 108 E. Wells, just east of the Milwaukee River and west of City Hall. Songs for Nobodies will be the first show opening the renovated Stackner Cabaret. It’s description; “This show reminds us that everyone has a story – and a song – worth hearing. Share in the life changing encounters between legendary divas and the everyday women whose lives they touched, interspersed with the songs that made Judy Garland, Patsy Cline, Edith Piaf, Billie Holiday, and Maria Callas icons of our age. Songs for Nobodies shows us the magical power of song.”

The meal choices you will have, and inform the server that evening, are;

2 Appetizer Choices

- Simple Greens or Caesar Side Salad – or
- Cup of Soup

4 Entree Choices

- Pan-Seared Salmon – or
- Braised Pot Roast – or –
- Herb-Roasted Chicken Breast - or
- Hoisin-Barbecued Eggplant & Tofu

2 Dessert Choices
